INSIDE HONG KONG POLICY, INDUSTRY, GOVERNMENT AND DIPLOMATIC AFFAIRS

Harbour Times aims to provide a platform to elevate policy and industry discussion in Hong Kong. Open to a targeted community, we will provide the platform for politicians and policy influencers to create and implement better policy, faster, for a better Hong Kong. Our belief in the value of Hong Kong's international character means we will bring the best of Hong Kong and the world to our pages in matching business leaders with policy makers.

“The only media group serving the policy maker, business, and diplomatic community in Hong Kong.”

- Andrew Work, Editor-in-Chief
